Tell us of any misc. information about this project that you want us to know:

All of my wedding packages include: Full Website, Full camera coverage of wedding and reception; 5 high-resolution DVD's with menu items of: Love Story; Entire Ceremony; Side Dishes; Photo Montage.

I humbly reserve the "artistic license" on your production. You'll provide for me any special audio, photos or requests that you have, and I will provide my art. At project's end I will gladly discuss making any reasonable alterations to content that you desire. Your satisfaction is what matters most to me.

Any photos needed to be used in productions can be given to us on CD or email. Please scan any photo images at 300 dpi.

Half of the job's total cost will be paid upfront at least one week before the wedding day (or before the start of any camera work, whichever comes first). The final balance will be paid upon completion of your videos and posting onto your website.

Now that we have the logistics out of the way...let's have some fun! This is a very important day and I look forward to doing my part and also to making you proud. I commit to you my total heart-n-soul participation in creating for you a production you'll treasure for a lifetime. Don't worry your heart, as there are no hidden costs or "bad surprises" with this agreement. My cameramen arrive early and stay until the rice is thrown, at no extra charge. I'm on this team to create memories for you and your family.

With great anticipation,

Rob Cross
